Plaintiffs, Car-Freshner Corporation ("Car-Freshner") and Julius Sämann, Ltd. ("JSL") (hereinafter collectively "Plaintiffs") having applied for an ex parte seizure order, Temporary Restraining Order ("TRO") and Order to Show Cause for Preliminary Injunction under Fed. R. H

R. Civ. P. 30(a) and 34(b), and the Court having reviewed the papers filed by the Plaintiffs, the Court issues the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

1. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this proceeding pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121(a) and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338(a) and (b) and 1367(a).
2. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 (b) and (c).
3. Plaintiff Car-Freshener is the exclusive licensee within the United States and its Territories of three valid, incontestable U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 719,498, 1,781,016 and 1,791,233 owned by Plaintiff JSL covering the shape or configuration of its air freshener products that are in the design of a tree (hereinafter “Tree Design Marks”). Car-Freshener also is the exclusive licensee within the United States and its Territories of the valid, incontestable U.S. Trademark Registration No. 675,796 owned by JSL covering the mark CAR-FRESHNER (hereinafter the “CAR-FRESHNER Mark”). Plaintiffs and their predecessors have been manufacturing and distributing air freshener products in the shape of Plaintiffs’ Tree Design Marks with the CAR-FRESHNER Mark in the United States for 50 years including in Puerto Rico since at least 1955.
4. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that Defendant In-mar Trading, Inc. (“Inmar”) and Defendant Yakima De Carolina, Inc., Almacenes Yakima De Caguas, Inc., Centro Comercial San Jose, Inc., Star Brothers, Inc. and Julio Estrella (hereinafter collectively the “Topeka Defendants”) are distributing and selling air freshener products, several color copies of which are attached to this Order as Exhibit A (“Defendants’ Products”) in this judicial district.
5. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that an ex parte seizure order is necessary to achieve the purposes of Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

6. Plaintiffs have not publicized the requested seizure.
7. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that Plaintiffs are likely to succeed in showing that Inmar and the Topeka Defendants are knowingly using a counterfeit mark in connection with the sale, offering for sale or distribution of Defendants' Products, namely the configuration of Defendants' Products, which is a counterfeit of Plaintiffs' Tree Design Mark and which bears a counterfeit of Plaintiffs' CAR-FRESHNER Mark within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1116(d)(4)(B)(iii) and which infringes those marks within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. §1114.
8. An immediate and irreparable injury will occur if an ex parte seizure is not ordered.
9. Defendants' Products to be seized are located at the following premises:

Inmar Trading, Inc.

10. The harm to Plaintiffs, if their application for an ex parte seizure order and for a temporary restraining order is denied, outweighs the harm to the legitimate interests of the defendants if the application for an ex parte seizure order is granted; and

11. The Defendants and persons acting in concert with the Defendants would destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to the court Defendants' Products and related evidence, if Plaintiffs were to proceed on notice to the Defendants.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

12. The U.S. Marshals or Other Law Enforcement Officer shall go to the Defendants' Premises identified in Paragraph 9 above and seize the following materials: a) all of Defendants' Products depicted in Exhibits 1-5 to Carlos Santana's Declaration and Exhibits 10-12 to Richard Flechtner's Declaration, attached to this Order, as well as any other air freshener products that are in the shape of a Tree Design similar to the design of the products depicted in the Exhibits detailed herein (regardless of color or fragrance) and any air fresheners bearing the trademark CAR-FRESHNER under packaging bearing the words "FRESH SCENTS" (hereafter collectively the "Counterfeit Products"); b) all documents, packages or other records that relate to or evidence Defendants' acquisition, importation, offer to sell, sale or distribution of the Accused Products.

13. The U.S. Marshals or Other Law Enforcement Officer shall conduct this seizure of evidence after this Order is issued but before November 19, 2002, which date is not later than seven days after the date on which this Order issued.

14. Any materials seized pursuant to this Order shall be deposited into the custody of the U.S. Marshall and/or Consultants Resources International and shall be preserved for use as evidence in this action.

15. Plaintiffs shall post a corporate surety bond, cash or a certified check in the total amount of $10,000 as security determined adequate for the payment of such damages as any person may be entitled to recover as a result of a wrongful seizure or restraint hereunder.
